

Birth of a child in Myanmar to parents who are not married: entry in the Swiss civil status register

June 2025

Births of children to Swiss nationals have to be reported to the Regional Consular Center as soon as possible.

The child receives Swiss nationality through registration of the birth in the Swiss Civil Registry (Exception: if the child was born before 1 January 2006 to an unmarried Swiss father).

Documents to submit

For the Child

- ☐ Birth certificate of the child ("Birth certificate" or "Birth certificate born alive" or, if not available, "Recommendation of Birth Certificate") issued by the Township Public Health Administration Department at the place of birth
 - If the child's name is not mentioned on the birth certificate, the parents must declare it (first name and family name) on a separate cover letter. The signature of both parents is required for this purpose.
- ☐ Foreign passport of the child, if already existing
- ☐ Paternity declaration, if possible

For the Swiss parent:

- ☐ Swiss passport

For the Myanmar parent:

- ☐ Birth certificate/Born Alive Certificate issued by the Township Public Health Department, or the Hospital Medical Record Department with signature of the Township Medical Officer, or the Township Health Officer at the place where you were born Myanmar passport
- ☐ National Registration Card (NRC)
- ☐ Household Member List/Family Member List, issued by the local immigration office
- ☐ Certificate of Residence, a Ward Recommendation Letter with your home address, issued by the Ward Administration Officer
- ☐ Statutory Declaration on civil status ("single", "divorced" or "widow"), not older than six months, issued by the competent court
 - If divorced, additionally a divorce decree and certificate of legal force of the sentence
 - If widowed, additionally the death certificate of the previous spouse
- ☐ Certificates regarding changes of first names, issued by the Department of Immigration

All documents must be submitted in the original. They can be handed in during counter opening hours either at the Swiss Embassy in Yangon or at the Regional Consular Centre Bangkok prior appointment. Only documents issued once (e.g. birth certificate) will be returned immediately.

In Myanmar, there is no separation between first and family names. The child's parents are requested to indicate the desired separation of the names of the child as well as the Myanmar parent for the civil status register in Switzerland on a separate letter.

Translation & Legalisation

All documents drawn up in Myanmar must be translated into English in advance by a "Notary Public" recognised by the Myanmar Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The translations must be certified by the Myanmar Ministry of Foreign Affairs before submission.

Fees

Additional costs of at least USD 400.00 will be incurred for the verification of the Myanmar documents by the lawyer of confidence. These fees are to be paid in cash in USD when the documents are handed over. The exact amount depends on the number of documents and their place of issue.

Further information

All documents and certificates submitted will be checked, certified and sent through official channels to the competent civil status authorities in Switzerland for entry in the Swiss civil status register. A period of at least ten weeks must be expected before the birth is subsequently registered.

The Swiss passport and/or identity card can only be ordered via the website www.schweizerpass.ch once the birth of the child has been entered in the Swiss civil status register.

If the Swiss parent is not registered with the Regional Consular Center as Swiss abroad and the child will continue to live in Myanmar, the child must be registered as Swiss abroad. In this case, the fully completed registration form signed by both parents (see the website of this representation) must also be submitted.

The Regional Consular Centre and the competent Swiss authorities reserve the right to request additional documents or to have additional certificates checked.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Bangkok Regional Consular Centre by e-mail or telephone
